- (3) Alternate Personal Service Methods. Service in the following manner shall also constitute personal service.

  - (b) Service may be made if the person to be served is informed of the purpose of the service and provided copies of the papers being served and said copies are either received by the person to be served or left within his reach. Upon return through the U.S. Mail of the receipt, signed by the addressee, the person so serving the notice or process shall file the return receipt with the Tribal Court.
- (6) Service by Publication. If the plaintiff can establish to the satisfaction of the Tribal Court by affidavit that he has made a diligent effort to obtain personal service as provided by these rules upon a defendant both within and without this jurisdiction, and that despite such diligent effort, personal service cannot be obtained on a defendant, then and in such event, the Tribal Court may authorize service by publication of the summons. Service by publication shall constitute publishing the contents of the summons in a local newspaper of general circulation at least once a week for four consecutive weeks and by mailing by first class mail, postage prepaid, a copy of the summons and complaint to the defendant at his last known post office address.
- (7) Amendment of Summons or Proof of Service. The Tribal Court may in its discretion on such terms as it deems proper at any time allow any summons or other process or proof of service to be amended unless it clearly appears that the substantial rights of the person against whom the process was issued would be prejudiced thereby.
