

below is the draft change. obviously the "(amended from 21)" wouldn't go into the actual law. its just included for purposes of review/comment.

§8-3-105. Participants.

- (1) Any person who participates in a game of chance authorized by this Chapter shall be deemed to consent to the civil and criminal jurisdiction of the Tribe including this Law and Order Code, and consents to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court.
- (2) No person shall participate in a game of chance authorized by this Title while such person appears to be, or is, under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs. The Foundation shall not permit any such person to enter the premises where games of chance are being played or to play in such games
- (3) No person under the age of 19 (amended from 21) shall participate in a game of chance authorized by this Chapter and the Foundation shall not permit any such person to participate.
